

Candy Cheng

Consultant

Candy graduated with an LL.B. and completed her Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (PCLL) from the University of Hong Kong. In 2009, she was awarded an LL.M in International Commercial Law from the University of Nottingham and attained distinction in subjects including international trade finance, international trademark law and her dissertation on parallel importation from trademark law perspective. She was admitted as a solicitor in Hong Kong in 2011.

Prior to joining Wellington Legal, Candy focused her practice in corporate and commercial areas. She also advised clients on intellectual property licensing and related matters (mainly in entertainment industry) and complex commercial litigation.

At Wellington Legal, Candy's main focus remains corporate and commercial practice. Enjoying the challenge in contentious matters, she expands her practice in litigation and dispute resolution. She regularly advises private individuals and corporations in complex commercial disputes with a strategic perspective. She also assists clients in regulatory and compliance matters.

Candy is fluent in English, Mandarin, Cantonese and conversational in Korean.
