

Kacy Lam

Associate

Kacy is a dual qualified lawyer admitted in Hong Kong and New York. She is also a qualified accountant registered at the HKICPA.

Kacy obtained both her Juris Doctor and Postgraduate Certificate in Laws at the Chinese University of Hong Kong and was awarded Distinguished Scholarship for her PCLL.

She received extensive training in contentious matters and is experienced in handling various types of onshore and offshore litigation cases (including partnership disputes, shareholder and director disputes, fraud, winding up, employment and probate etc.) and interlocutory and enforcement applications (subpoena application, stay of execution application and oral examination hearings etc.). Kacy frequently assumed the important role of handling financial documents and forensic related matters.

Prior to embarking her career in law, Kacy obtained a BBA in Accounting and Finance and was awarded Outstanding Academic Achievement Awards (Bronze in Year 1 and Gold in Year 2) and Dean's List Awards (two academic years) in her first degree. She worked as an accountant in the Tax department at one of the Big Four accounting firms and at one of the largest banks in Hong Kong.
